GREECE WANTS PEACE
European Powers Now Waiting for the Terms. Even the Sultan Pities King George.
[Special dispatch to the Transcript.]
London, May 10.—The talk of political Europe today centers on the peace to be made between Turkey and Greece.
A dispatch from Vienna says that it is reported there that Turkey's terms of peace with Greece include the payment of $3,000,000 pounds, the rearrangement of the Greek frontier, the annulling of all treaties favoring the Greeks, the cession of the Greek fleet to Turkey and the Cretan question settled in Turkey's favor.
Paris is said to have information this afternoon to the effect that the recent negotiations between Greece and Turkey will not be attended by difficulties and will have a satisfactory issue. The powers have already agreed among themselves on the terms of the peace.
The Exchange Telegraph company announces that private dispatches from Constantinople declare that the Sultan has expressed deep sympathy for King George and the Greek government whose hands in his opinion, were forced by revolutionary agents.
Athens, May 10.—It is learned upon the very best authority that Greece has made a written application to the powers through their representatives at Athens for mediation. All the representatives have promised in their replies to use their best offices except the German minister, who has merely acknowledged the receipt of the note from the cabinet.
The powers are inclined to support the request, with a view to the facilitation of negotiations, but it declines to consent to an armistice on the ground that this would enable Greece to reorganize her forces.
As a matter of fact, Turkey continues to send troops from Salonika homeward, and it is probable that Osman Pasha has returned to Constantinople from Salonika. In view of both facts it may be assumed that nothing serious is expected, but the continuance of a state of war in regard to the very best means of hastening the efforts of diplomacy.
Without doubt hopes have been raised in Turkey that the Ottoman government might annex Thessaly and restore the old frontier of 1881, but the sultan is not inclined to risk such a step. On the contrary, he opposes it uncompromisingly and will not yield to the pressure of the war party at Constantinople. He will be satisfied with a reasonable indemnity and a slight recognition of the eastern Thessalonian frontier, such a one as would give Turkey several strategic positions in the vicinity of Neosofia.
It is understood that Greece agrees to confine her interests to the powers in the peace negotiations.
King George Yields.
So great is the change in public sentiment that but little opposition is provoked by the decision to recall the army from Crete. King George, who was believed to be unapproachable on this subject, has finally yielded with good grace.
It is reported in official circles that Queen Olga has sent a telegram to the czar soliciting the mediation of Russia. The government has addressed a request to the powers to allow the Greek army to cross the frontier and permit the Greek warships to embark the troops that have been recalled. The government explains the recall as due to the urgent need of men for the defense of Thessaly.
The latest news from the front is that General Smolenski is now with the Greek forces at Persepolis, where he is expecting a fresh attack.
M. Skouloudis, the Greek minister of foreign affairs, said in an interview that he expects many difficulties will be encountered in the peace negotiations.
The Greek western squadron has rescued large numbers of women and children from villages along the Epirus coast threatened by the Turks. A dispatch from London dated Saturday says that the Crown Prince Constantine is still at Demokos. The dispatch says that the anxiety of inhab-

HANDSOME STRUCTURE CROWDED
Bishop Beaven Present. Rev. John C. Ivers Preached a Fine Sermon. Excellent Music and Beautifully Trimmed Church.
The dedication of the new St. Thomas church in Adams occurred Sunday. Bishop Beaven of Springfield, assisted by Fr. P. D. Stone of Chicopee Falls and J. F. McGrath of Adams, celebrated 8 o'clock mass. The 9 o'clock mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Harkins of Holyoke. The dedicatory ceremony began at 10:30 o'clock. The bishop was escorted by Fr. Harkins and Stone with Fr. McGrath master of ceremonies.
[That much advertised and powerful play, "Jim, the Penman," will be at the Columbia theater tomorrow night. From information received by Manager Meade from cities elsewhere it is safe to say that one of the most enjoyable performances of the season will be witnessed on this occasion. The play itself has sufficient reputation while the names of the artists alone should insure a good performance.]
There are two in the company who were the original in their respective parts both in London and New York, viz: Edward Emery, the first to play the foppish detective in the Haymarket production, and H. M. Pitt, the original Forestal in the great Madison square theater cast. Another great artist with the company is Marie Edith Rice, the beautiful and talented actress, who came to this country with Henry Irving as Miss Terry's understudy, in addition to playing prominent parts with the noted actor. Others of the company are Clement B. Martin, H. J. Wolfe, Charles Marriott, John J. Shaw, J. C. Vernon, May Sargent and Jessie Lansing.
A packed house should reward Manager Meade's efforts in securing for his theater-going patrons such a high class attraction which will close his present theatrical season.
BASEBALL NOTES.
It was a good game, that trial against skill from the Paper City on Saturday, and some people need not call it a fake just because North Adams is invariably too much for all comers.
Manager Lawson is now the sole owner of Lawsonian field. It is his, the little piece of grass, mud, sand and all.
McCaun the new pitcher arrived Saturday night, with Manager Lawson he made a tour of this beautiful city Sunday and filled himself with Berkshire air. He declares the scenery grand, the air most bracing and the chances of pounding those Cuban Giants Wednesday as beyond a question.
McCaun is a rugged healthy looking mortal with strong arms and a good handshake. His arrival is a relief to the local enthusiasts, who realized that Yerkes, good as he is, could not be asked to pitch Wednesday's game.
Mr. Lawson has very generously offered the public free use of the bleachers on the east side of the grand stand. The seats on the other bleachers will be charged for as usual, 10 cents. This is done to prevent a crowd gathering along fence to the annoyance of the players and to the inconvenience of the seats on the bleachers. Those seats paid for are to be termed the "millionaires" while the free seats are the "paupers."
The Cuban Giants will not have any time for their usual circus performances on Wednesday. They are not playing a pumpkin team or a college team.
Yerkes did nobly for one who had pitched on Thursday. He deserves many thanks for his grit.
Cuban Giants vs. North Adams Wednesday. A game worth seeing.
Motz runs like a bear but he "gets there", that is, if the ball don't beat him out. He was on hand for three singles and a two-bagger which proves he can bat if he can't sprint.
"Pounder" Drew deserves his title. His home run was a dandy. He also got a two-bagger and a single to his credit.
Captain Boland and O'Brien met up excellent ball Saturday but Scharf made a bad error in the fourth.
—The Ladies Aid society of the U. N. Y. Y. church will serve a 15-cent supper on Wednesday evening from 5 until 7 o'clock.
—A meeting of the firemen will be held in Room 2 Tuesday evening. All members of the department are requested to be present.
—C. Cesana has begun getting out building stone for the market at his quarry above South Church street, formerly known as the Rand quarry.
—There are a number of common vipers in the city who have not taken out their licenses, duty which should have been attended to May 1. Unless the matter is attended to soon the offenders will receive official attention.

SHIP ON FIRE AT SEA.
The Francis of New Bedford Burned Off New Jersey Coast.
VESSEL WILL PROVE A TOTAL LOSS.
Several Ships Encounter Disaster, Some by Fire, Others by Stranding, While One Unknown Craft is Sunk Beneath the Waves.
Beach Haven, N. J., May 10.—The ship Francis of New Bedford, Mass., under command of Captain A. F. Smith and with a crew of 25 men, which left San Francisco on the 17th of January last with a general cargo bound for New York, took fire at sea, and in order to save the lives of those on board and the ship and cargo if possible she was beached on the south end of Long Branch, six miles below here. The captain and crew reached shore safely and were taken care of by the crew of the Little Egg Harbor life saving station. The vessel was burned to the water's edge and, with the cargo, will prove a total loss.
The fire was first discovered about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and was burning fiercely in the hold. All hands were ordered on deck and manned to extinguish the flames, but they had gained too much headway, and it was as much as the men could do to prevent the fire from spreading so rapidly as to necessitate their taking to the boats on the open sea.
The captain saw that his only hope lay in reaching shore, where he could possibly have a chance of saving the ship and part of the cargo. With this end in view he headed the Francis toward the beach, while the crew kept pouring water into the hold.
It was well after dark, and the position of the men on board was perilous in the extreme. With her bow pointed well on the shore, the ship struck hard and fast. Meanwhile the fire was raging even more furiously than before, and all hands were forced to leave with nothing but the clothes on their backs. They were assisted in reaching shore by the life guards, and were supplied with needed clothing and nourishment. The tugs I. J. Merritt and North America arrived and endeavored to put out the fire. They were unable to accomplish anything and finally gave up. The captain and mate left on one of the tugs for New York, and the crew will go by train on Tuesday. What renders the accident still more unfortunate is the fact that Captain Smith's wife died at sea on the outward trip of the ship. He had the body embalmed and sent home by train. It awaits his arrival in Boston.
The Francis is a full rigged ship of 1,974 tons burden. She was out 132 days and experienced no unusual weather throughout the voyage. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Lincoln Club of Holyoke Were the Victims This Time.

NORTH ADAMS' HEAVY HITTERS

A Good Game at Lawsonian Field Saturday. Witnessed by a Large Number. The Visitors Were Out Classified. 17 to 7.

Saturday was a perfect day for baseball and about 1,500 people took advantage of the unusually fine weather to witness the game at Lawsonian field. North Adams had for opponents the Holyoke Lincoln club team. Many were a little disappointed when the learned the Holyoke Athletic team was unable to play the return game on Saturday, as had been planned, yet the spectators were well repaid for their trip down the valley. The Holyoke team was well informed, well disciplined and well-intentioned, but for all that, they could not defeat the crack North Adams team. The visiting outfielders made costly errors, miffing long flys when they meant one or more runs. The infield was not particularly alert, the throwing to bases being a little off and invariably crooked when clean work was most needed. The team was plainly out-classed but, in spite of the vision of almost certain defeat before their eyes, they kept at their work in a manner which showed they had their friends at home in mind.

North Adams' Efforts

North Adams started the game with Drew at bat. He was thrown out at first by Lauer. Motz and Lauer came along with two base hits each. Sullivan hit the ball but was caught out at first. O'Brien landed a safe hit to right field and Hoffer found the ball for a hot drive to the short stop but was left on first, for O'Brien was caught on his trip to second. Motz and Lauer had scored, and the game was well started. In the second inning three more runs were added by the timely and safe hits of Scharf, Yerkes, Drew and Lauer, and a pretty sacrifice of Summers. No one crossed home plate in the third, although Scharf and Summers both hits safely to center field territory. In the fourth, Drew again hit to left field and got home on a nice drive to center from Motz's bat. The latter was unfortunate in being caught on his homeward journey and a like fate befell Lauer a few moments later.

Another tally was scored in the fifth. Hoffer getting around the diamond on an error by Kilkenny, a block ball, a stolen base and a sacrifice hit by Scharf. The sixth inning was once again a fatal blow for the visitors' score card appearance. Before three had been declared out, Yerkes, Drew, Motz, Burt and O'Brien had enjoyed the pleasure of stepping on the rubber plate in front of the catcher. Burt had taken Sullivan's place as the later had received a bad cut on his left thumb while trying to stop a high ball in the fourth. Pounder's Drew covered himself with glory by sending the sphere over the left field fence for a home run. Motz had contributed a clean hit to left field and two long flys were poorly handled by the Holyoke outfielders. The combination was a pleasing one to the North Adams supporters and their satisfaction was made evident until the grand stand and bleachers tottered.

A goose egg was all the efforts in the seventh amounted to. But the omission was made up for in the eighth, for three more notches were added to the tally stick. Burt hit a hot grounder to the shortstop, too hot to be handled in time. O'Brien came along with a dandy two-bagger to right field sending Burt home with time to burn. O'Brien reached third on a passed ball and home shortly after wards on "Hot" drive to left field. "Hot" was put out at second. When Scharf got to first he found the ball waiting for him and so took his seat. Summers was more fortunate. The center fielder obligingly dropped his long fly hit. Yerkes was just in time with a three baser to center field and Summers lost no time in scoring. Yerkes was left on third after all his effort for Drew failed to get the ball out of the diamond.

The ninth was not needed to win the game but there was no let-up of attempt. Motz tried in vain to find even temporary quarters at first base. Lauer was hit in the leg and limped along the line. He misjudged his ability to sprint for while trying to steal second the pitcher caught him. Burt secured first on four balls, stole second like a veteran and came home sailing on O'Brien's clean hit to right field. Hoffer was a hero with a three base hit to left field. While the ball was in the air O'Brien reached the coveted rubber. Hoffer was left at third by Scharf's going out at first. The North Adams team had scored 17 runs by hard and timely batting, good base running and strict attention to business.

Holyoke Tried Hard

Kilkenny commenced the batting for Holyoke but was quickly out, Lauer getting in the way of his grounder. Hoffer struck out and O'Rourke made first on a poor throw. Sullivan touched the ball for a safe hit out of Motz's reach, bringing O'Rourke home. Cullen followed with a safe one over Sullivan's head but Murray's striking out ended the inning. In one two three order they went out in the second, O'Brien, Scharf and Lauer making a fine double play.

Kilkenny tried his best to get around in the third, stealing two bases, but the North Adams' fielders were not "on the muff." The fourth was rather disastrous to North Adams' tally mark. A two base hit by Curran, a single by Gilday, a costly error by Scharf, another good hit by Lauer had the effect of adding three runs to the Holyoke score.

Not until the eighth did the visitors get around the bases again, but they went with a will when once started and could not be checked before Sullivan, Curran and Gilday had tried the elasticity of the home plate. In that time at bat Yerkes was used rather roughly, there being four singles and one two-bagger ground out of him. But he retrieved himself by striking out two men. The ninth brought nothing more for the visitors, and they had to be contented with a total of seven runs. The score:

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

Large Attendance and Much Interest at Odd Fellows' Hall.

The temperance meeting held in Odd Fellows' hall Sunday evening under the auspices of the Congregational church was well attended, the hall being nearly filled. Rev. W. L. Tenney presided, and the singing was led by the Congregational choir, which was seated upon the platform. Organist J. J. O'Connell presided at the piano. After several hymns had been sung the speaking was begun by Rev. Mr. Tenney, who after a few introductory remarks introduced Peter McPhail, who gave an earnest temperance talk. Among the other speakers were Frank H. Whitney, Rev. A. B. Church, Supt. I. F. Hall and a man who signed the pledge during the Murphy meetings. All of the speakers were attentively heard and much interest was manifested, a number of persons signing the pledge at the close of the meeting. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. were present with pledges and blue ribbons on a table in front of the platform. Rev. Mr. Tenney explained the purpose of holding the meeting in the hall and asked those present whether they would rather attend such a meeting or one at the church under the auspices of the Men's Sunday evening club. A show of hands indicated an almost unanimous preference in favor of the hall.

It is proposed to hold a series of these meetings to keep alive the sentiment awakened here by Mr. Murphy and to increase the interest in the cause of temperance. The meeting next Sunday evening will be held in Wilson opera house at 7.30 o'clock under the auspices of the Universalist church.

Removed to New Haven.

Frank E. Murray, for over five years operator for the Postal telegraph company in this city, has been removed to the office in New Haven, Conn. He is considered a first-class operator and has learned all he knows in the employ of W. F. Orr, for whom he first went to work as messenger boy. Mr. Murray's friends wish him every success.

There were seven deaths in the city last week from the following causes: Brights disease 1, inflammation of the bowels 1, congestion of the brain 1, cancer 1, meningitis 2, gastro enteritis 1. Four of the persons were under five years of age.

Mary A. Burke.

Mrs. Mary A. Burke, widow of Joseph Burke, died Saturday at her home, 33 Centre street, aged 29 years. She had been sick for some time with consumption, which was the cause of her death. She leaves five children who have the sympathy of many in their sorrow. The funeral will be attended from St. Francis' church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. W. J. Breckenridge.

Mrs. William J. Breckenridge, formerly of this city, died at Troy, N. Y., Saturday. Mrs. Breckenridge was a sister of S. J. Ellis of this city and was well known and highly esteemed here, although it is a number of years since she had lived in North Adams. The funeral will be taken Tuesday and the remains will be taken to Pittsfield for interment.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Clyde Rascoff of Troy, N. Y., son of Horace Rascoff, formerly of the Transcript office, is visiting friends in this city. He will go to Lake Placid in the Adirondacks about June 1 and have charge of the printing of the bills of fare at the hotel there through the summer.
Miss Abbie Shaw fell down a pair of cellar stairs at C. W. Bennett's home Sunday evening and sustained a fracture of the left shoulder and a deep cut in the forehead. Dr. O. J. Brown attended.

At a meeting of the county officers of the American order of Foresters, in Adams Saturday it was decided to hold bicycle races at their field-day in this city July 5. The reports of the various committees showed that the arrangements are being completed with satisfaction and a grand event is assured.

The practice of nailing bills to trees has begun again, much to the annoyance of people who feel that more pride should be taken in the looks of the city.
